- Riverside Campus, (541) 245-3334

Academic excellence is the primary hallmark of Phi Theta Kappa, an honor society serving two-year colleges that offer associate degree programs. Other standards of membership in the RCC Chapter, Alpha Zeta Pi, include leadership, service, and fellowship. Members must attain a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher after completing 18 or more hours at RCC and be enrolled in a regionally accredited certificate or degree program.

PTK members also attain regional and national recognition through comprehensive awards programs, develop interpersonal communication and leadership skills, take part in numerous social activities, and provide a variety of services to the college and community.

PTK members are eligible for many scholarships.

Intramural sports

- ASGRCC Office, Student Center/Cafeteria, Redwood Campus, (541) 956-7033
- ASGRCC Office, G Building, Riverside Campus, (541) 245-7729

Intramural sports such as badminton, basketball, volleyball, softball, and soccer are coordinated through the Associated Student Government of Rogue Community College (ASGRCC) and the Health, Physical Education and Recreation (HPER) Department. Students interested in intramural on-campus activities such as tournaments are invited to contact the ASGRCC Intramural coordinator.

Multicultural center

- B Building, Riverside Campus

The Multicultural Student Center has art and artifacts from various cultures and offers a place for student study groups to work together and a place for students to relax. Various events such as poetry readings and films are occasionally presented.

- G Building, Riverside Campus, (541) 245-7729

The Associated Student Government of Rogue Community College (ASGRCC) coordinates student activities and clubs, supports special events, represents the students to the college administration, and works on political issues. General fund allocations contribute funding for cultural activities, guest speakers and entertainers, and special campus events. ASGRCC also provides assistance to campus departments by helping fund academic and cultural field trips.

Officers presiding in the following positions are either elected by the student body during the spring term, or appointed by the ASGRCC Executive Council as needed:

- President
- Vice President
- Director of Activities
- Director of Clubs
- Wellness Program Director
- Executive Secretary
- Director of Health and Wellness
- Intramural Coordinator
- Director of Publicity and Media
- Student Senators

Student government officers receive tuition assistance for their services to the student body and the college campus. Ad hoc representatives may be appointed to paid and/or volunteer positions.

Positions may vary on each campus.

Student newspaper

www.roguecc.edu/Byline

G Building, Riverside Campus, (541) 245-7726

The Byline is a monthly newspaper produced by students with guidance from a faculty advisor. Contents include news about RCC, editorials, letters to the editor, features, entertainment reviews, creative writing and advertisements. The paper is distributed on all RCC campuses.

Byline reporters are enrolled in News Writing or Introduction to Journalism classes. Stories may also be submitted by other students and faculty. Check with the newspaper adviser for details.

Wellness activities

- ASGRCC Office, Student Center/Cafeteria, Redwood Campus, (541) 956-7033
- G Building, Riverside Campus, (541) 245-7729

The Associated Student Government of Rogue Community College (ASGRCC) Student Wellness Program encourages students to seek lifestyles which enable them to achieve their highest potential of well-being. ASGRCC works with the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department to schedule events that are designed to achieve this mission. More information is available by contacting the ASGRCC offices.

Student rights, freedoms, and responsibilities

The Student Rights, Freedoms, and Responsibilities statement identifies the fundamental provisions for student freedom to learn and the corollary student conduct and responsibilities expected by members of the college community.

Alleged infringements of the statement may be appealed by using the Student Grievance Procedure.

The Student Code of Conduct and Procedures can be found in the "Policies" section of this catalog. It also is available on the RCC Web site at www.roguecc.edu/BoardPolicies/appendix.3.htm under the "Rights and Responsibilities" heading.

Student grievance forms may be obtained in the counseling/advising centers at all RCC campuses.

Incident report forms are located on the intranet index at www.roguecc.edu/intranet under the forms section.
