GED prep and exam offered in Spanish at RCC

Rogue Community College will teach preparation classes for taking the General Educational Development (GED) exams in Spanish this spring in Medford. The GED tests can also be taken in Spanish.

Earning a GED certificate may increase job opportunities and help students prepare for college. The five-part test covers math, reading, social studies, science, and writing.

Classes are scheduled from 9 a.m. to noon on Fridays, April 1 through June 10, at the Fir Street Learning Center, Room 204, 30 S. Fir St. The instructor is Jose Bañuelos. Registration fee for the Spanish GED class is $31. However, if a student is already enrolled at RCC and has paid the $31 registration, there is no additional fee.

Participants must have completed at least six grades of primary school in their native country. They also will need to take a pre-test during orientation to determine eligibility.

Length of time to prepare for the GED depends on skill level upon entering the class. For example, a student who has completed only the eighth grade could take six to nine months to prepare.

Space is limited. Call 245-7701 for information and to schedule an orientation appointment.
