Service groups bring info to RCC

Representatives from approximately 30 regional service agencies will be on hand May 3 when Rogue Community College hosts its first Community Connections Day.

Coordinated by the RCC Counseling Department, the event will run from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Redwood Campus Student Center, Grants Pass.

“The purpose of Community Connections Day is to link students with resources that may help them or members of their families,” said Sue Orris, counselor.

Students also can explore opportunities for Cooperative Work Experience with providers and learn more about employment and volunteer opportunities. Instructors can learn about community resources available to assist students.

“By volunteering with service providers, students can gain valuable experiences that will help enhance the lives of others as well as further develop their own skills,” Orris added.

Groups include Coalition for Kids, Habitat for Humanity, Housing Council, Job Council, Lovejoy Hospice, Oregon State Employment Department, OSU Extension Service, Planned Parenthood, Neighborhood Watch and Public Safety, Josephine County Mental Health, Crime Prevention, Siskiyou Health Clinic, and Women’s Crisis Support Team.

For more information about Community Connections, contact Judy D. Smith, RCC Counseling Department, 956-7198.

###