Ins-and-outs of doing business in East Asia covered in SBDC class

Learn how to successfully conduct business in East Asia at a course provided this fall by the Rogue Community College Small Business Development Center.

DOING BUSINESS OVERSEAS: EAST ASIA — 6-8 p.m., Wednesdays, Oct. 5 – Dec. 14: Covers strategic planning for conducting business in East Asia. Topics include country economic and political background, Asian business structures, sales channels, trade barriers, regulations, and organizations. Additional topics include finding and qualifying suppliers, financing, successfully building Asian relationships, and tips for smooth business travel. Tuition: $399. Instructor: Glen Rountree.

This course is sponsored by the RCC Small Business Development Center, and will be held at the RCC Riverside Campus, Building F, Room 10, 101 S. Front St., Medford. Pre-registration is required by noon two working days before the class to avoid cancellation. Enrollment is limited. Register on-line at www.roguecc.edu/SBDC, at any RCC registration site, or call the SBDC at 956-7494 for pre-registration or further information.

###