Photography exhibit explores edges of forest and water, passage of time

“Juxtaposition,” an exhibit of silver gelatin print photographs by Tim Goodman and Rhonda Wilson, is being shown through Sept. 24 at the Rogue Community College Firehouse Gallery in downtown Grants Pass.

Goodman, of Berkeley, Calif., is drawn to the dramatic edges between the forest and water. Wilson, who lives in Reno, examines the texture, form, and patterns created by the process of time as the earth reclaims cast off human possessions.

Photographs by local photographer Joann Loudermilk will be shown in the Community Exhibits Room.

The RCC Firehouse Gallery is in Historic City Hall, Fourth and H streets, Grants Pass. The gallery is open from 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday. Call 956-7339 or visit the Web site at www.roguecc.edu/Galleries
