Firehouse features watercolors as metaphor for our times

“When the Day is Longer Than the Century,” an exhibit of watercolor paintings by Natalya N. Burd, will be shown March 1-25 at Rogue Community College’s Firehouse Gallery.

Burd is a Bay Area artist originally from Eastern Europe. She studied painting and glass design at Moscow University of Art and Art Industry and earned a master of fine arts from the University of Washington. She describes her work as both a direct link to everything around her and as a metaphor for the times in which we live.

Artwork by students from Fleming and Lincoln Savage middle schools will be shown in the Community Exhibits Room.

A First Friday Art Night is scheduled from 6-9 p.m. March 3 in conjunction with an open house of RCC’s art classrooms.

The Firehouse Gallery of Rogue Community College is in Historic City Hall, Fourth and H streets, Grants Pass. The gallery is open from 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday. Call 956-7339 or visit the Web site at www.roguecc.edu/Galleries
