Student loan laws changing

Because laws governing student loans will change July 1, Rogue Community College encourages people with outstanding student loan debts to contact their loan holders and inquire about whether loan consolidation would be beneficial.

Consolidation could mean saving hundreds of dollars, according to Anna Manley, RCC director of financial aid. Current students have until June 30 to take advantage of existing in-school consolidation options.

To learn more about loan consolidation, contact your lender/servicer/secondary market. Log onto the National Student Loan Data System at www.nslds.ed.gov to look up personal student loan debt information.

More information is available by calling RCC's Financial Aid Office: 956-7501.
