May 30, 2006

RCC Orchestra honors Mozart at June 11 concert

The Rogue Community College Orchestra will present its final concert of the season at 3 p.m. June 11 in the Rogue Building on the RCC Redwood Campus, Grants Pass.

The concert will celebrate the 250th anniversary of the birth of Mozart, with Rogue Valley pianist Janis Rands the featured soloist. The orchestra, completing its 30th season, performs under the direction of Jim Rich. Sharing the program will be the RCC Chorus under the direction of Dick Wees.

Selections will include Mozart’s Symphony No. 7, composed when he was 10-years old, and a mature work, the Piano Concerto No. 20 in D minor, along with music composed by two of Mozart’s contemporaries.

There is no charge for admission, but donations will be accepted. For more information contact Jim Rich, 592-2681.

###

N06-75