Firehouse exhibit looks at life’s “wonderful translucence”

“Paintings from Life,” a collection of recent works by Grants Pass artist Vince Carl, will be featured June 1 through July 1 at the Rogue Community College Firehouse Gallery. “Feminine Reflections of the Masculine,” a display of paintings by Judy Ross Koral, will be in the Community Exhibits Room.

Carl’s paintings explore the human form as symbols of humanity, describing life as “vigorous, unexpected, and wonderfully translucent.” The artist will talk about his paintings June 7 beginning at 11:30 a.m. at the gallery. The public is invited and refreshments will be served.

A First Friday Art Night reception is scheduled from 6-9 p.m. June 2.

The annual RCC student art exhibit will continue through June 14 at the college’s Wiseman Gallery on Redwood Campus. The mixed-media show features work created this year in RCC art classes.

The RCC Firehouse Gallery is in Historic City Hall, Fourth and H streets, Grants Pass. The gallery is open from 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday. Call 956-7339 or visit the Web site at www.roguecc.edu/Galleries
