RCC Orchestra and Chorus perform spring concert

The Rogue Community College Orchestra and Chorus will present their final concert of the season at 3 p.m. June 11 in the Rogue Building on the RCC Redwood Campus, Grants Pass.

The orchestra will celebrate the 250th anniversary of the birth of Mozart, with Rogue Valley pianist Janis Rands the featured soloist. The orchestra, which is completing its 30th season, performs under the direction of Jim Rich.

Selections will include Mozart’s Symphony No. 7, composed when he was 10-years old, and a mature work, the Piano Concerto No. 20 in D minor, along with music composed by two of Mozart’s contemporaries.

The RCC Chorus, under the direction of Dick Wees, will perform Singin’ in the Rain, The Paper Reeds, Perhaps Love, I Have Dreamed, Ride the Chariot, An Irish Blessing and more.

There is no charge for admission, but donations will be accepted. For more information contact Jim Rich, 592-2681.
