RCC Wiseman Gallery calls for art entries

Entries are sought for a juried exhibit at Rogue Community College that will showcase small-format contemporary art during National Women's History Month in March. “Abracadabra: Tricks and Tricksters” is scheduled March 4 through April 11 at the RCC Wiseman Gallery. Tommi Drake, gallery director and Pat Enos, exhibit curator, will judge submissions.

All entries must be postmarked by Jan. 23. Artwork can be loosely based on the theme and should reflect issues relating to role-playing, personal facades, manipulation, deception, or the duality of roles needed in today’s society. The theme may be interpreted in any style — factually, hypothetically, symbolically, satirically, or politically. An artist statement with explanation of thematic relationship should accompany the submission.

Submissions are open to all artists 18 or older. Work must have been completed in the last two years. All media is acceptable. Two-dimensional (wall piece) submissions must be no larger than 12” x 12” including frame. Three-dimensional submissions must be no larger than 6” in height, width and depth.

To enter, submit digital images, three pieces maximum. Digital images should have a pixel dimension of 1024 x 768 and be saved at the highest quality jpeg. (Three-dimensional work may include more than one slide or image per piece). All submissions must be accompanied by a list with title, medium and size. An entry fee of $5 per piece and an artist’s statement pertaining to this work must also accompany the images submitted.
