Seminar provides business tools facing tough times

The RCC Business Development Center (BDC) will sponsor a seminar, "Tools for Business Success in Tough Times," to be held from 5 to 8 p.m., Tuesday, June 2, at the Bear Hotel, 2101 Spalding Ave., Grants Pass.

Learn how the Business Development Center can help any size business grow. The BDC will introduce new business services, which include Next Level Plan for mature companies, Micro-enterprise business training, and the Illinois Valley Entrepreneurial Center. Talk to business professionals, network with other business owners, and learn about other services such as the Small Business Management program, business counseling, business growth strategies, business training, and resource connections.

Refreshment will be served. RSVP by calling the Business Development Center at 956-7494, or send an e-mail to sbdc@roguecc.edu.
