RCC galleries seek entries for two show

The Rogue Community College art galleries are accepting entries for two upcoming shows.

All artists are invited to enter a piece in the 61st Southern Oregon Art Show. This historic show, formerly sponsored by the American Association of University Women, will be sponsored by Art Works in 2009 and will be held August 7–28 in the RCC FireHouse Gallery.

Art will be received from noon to 4 p.m. July 31 and Aug. 1 at the FireHouse Gallery. The entry categories are youth (18 and under), amateur and professional divisions in watercolor, drawing and pastels, oil and acrylics, printmaking, sculpture, ceramics, photography, fiber art, and mixed media.

Artwork guidelines and information about artist workshops that run in conjunction with the show are available at the FireHouse Gallery, 214 SW 4th Street, Grants Pass.

Entries also are being accepted for the Spirit of the Rogue exhibit, scheduled Sept. 29 through Oct. 30. Spirit of the Rogue is a juried exhibit held in conjunction with the Art Along the Rogue art and music festival. The exhibit features local, regional and national work that reflects life along the Rogue River in a variety of media.

The submission process is open to all artists 18 years or older. Artists do not have to live in the Rogue Valley; all who love the Rogue River are invited to contribute. Work should reflect some aspect of life along the Rogue River, however. It can be abstract or representational.

All work must have been completed within the last two years. Artists may submit up to three pieces for consideration. Deadline for entry is Aug. 1. Entry forms are available at FireHouse Gallery, or call (541) -956-7339.

For more information on either exhibit, call the RCC Galleries at (541) 956-7339.
