RCC gallery seeks entries for Women’s History month show

Artwork is being sought for a juried exhibit to be displayed during National Women’s History Month in March.

Entries should reflect women’s issues relating to the title theme, “Where Do We Go From Here? The Shape of Things to Come.”

The show, which showcases small format contemporary art, is scheduled Feb. 29 through April 6, 2012 in the Wiseman Gallery on the RCC Redwood Campus, 3345 Redwood Hwy., Grants Pass.

The show is open to all artists 18 and older and to all media. Work must have been completed in the past two years and be no larger than 18 inches by 18 inches, including frame. Three-dimensional submissions must be no larger than 12 inches in any direction. No entry fee is required. The theme may be interpreted in any style that relates to the title (factually, hypothetically, symbolically, satirically, politically, etc.) An artist statement with explanation of thematic relationship should accompany the submission.

Artists should submit digital images with a maximum of three pieces. Digital images should be saved at the highest quality .jpeg. Three-dimensional work may include more than one slide or image per piece. All submissions must be accompanied by a list with title, media and size, artist’s contact info and artist statement explaining the thematic relationship.

Entries must be postmarked on or before Jan. 20; response notification will be sent by Feb. 3. Send CD entries to Wiseman Gallery, Rogue Community College, 3345 Redwood Hwy., Grants Pass, OR 97527. Email entries, image lists and statements to hgreen@roguecc.edu.
