FireHouse Gallery exhibit features Portland-based artist

GRANTS PASS — “Excavation,” an exhibit of work by Portland artist Richard Cutshall, will be on display May 1–25 at the Rogue Community College FireHouse Gallery.

Cutshall works in the mediums of drawing/painting, printmaking, and sculpture. His artwork has been in over 45 group and solo shows, both nationally and internationally, and is included in numerous private and public collections.

He vividly recalls drawing at an early age and using it as a way to understand the sometimes frightening aspects of the world around him. Today that use of art as a way of gaining understanding continues, with Cutshall describing his work as “a kind of self-exorcism.”

Also on display in the Community Exhibit Room are watercolors by Roger Robinson. A First Friday Art Night reception is scheduled from 6 to 9 p.m. May 4.

The gallery is located at the corner of H and Fourth streets in Historic City Hall. Hours are 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday. For information call 541-956-7241.
