NEWS RELEASE

Feb. 20, 2013

RCC theater students present two shows

GRANTS PASS — Rogue Community College theater students will perform their thoughts and ideas on apocalypse — sometimes serious, sometimes humorous — at shows on March 14 and 19.

Featuring original theater written and performed by students, the shows are scheduled 3-4:15 p.m. in the Rogue Auditorium on the Redwood Campus, 3345 Redwood Hwy. Admission is by donation.

The performances explore the theme of apocalypse, internal and external. Apocalypse, translated from ancient Greek, means “uncovering.” For more information, contact Wayd Drake, RCC Humanities instructor, at 541-956-7165 or wdrake@roguecc.edu.

###

Twitter cue: RWC Theater students take on the apocalypse in performances March 14 and 19.

N13-12