NEWS RELEASE

June 26, 2013

Submissions sought for juried art shows

Rogue Community College is seeking submissions for two juried art exhibits.

The first exhibit will showcase pastel works and will hang in the FireHouse Gallery, corner of Fourth and H streets, Grants Pass. Titled “Chalk on the Wall,” the show will be on display Oct. 2-25. Entries must be emailed or postmarked by Aug. 16; notification will be sent by Aug. 30.

“Chalk on the Wall” is scheduled in conjunction with the Oct. 5-6 Art Along the Rogue Street Painting and Music Festival.

Entries also are sought for “Is This Freedom?” Scheduled Nov. 6 – Dec. 13, the show will hang in the Wiseman Gallery on the RCC Redwood Campus, 3345 Redwood Hwy., Grants Pass. Work should address the concept of freedom in the contemporary world.

Submissions for “Is This Freedom?” may be in any medium or combination of mediums. Work may deal with the current state of freedom in any variation of the issue such as personal, collective, political, economic, social, religious, etc. All points of view and interpretations are welcome. An artist statement with explanation of thematic relationship should accompany the submission. Entries must be emailed or postmarked by Sept. 13. Notification will be sent by Sept. 27.

Both shows are open to all artists 18 and older. Work must have been completed in the last two years. To enter, submit digital images (three pieces maximum per show) on a CD or via email. Images should be saved at the highest quality jpeg.

All submissions must be accompanied by a list with title, media and size, artist’s contact info, and artist statement. No entry fee is required. Email entries to hgreen@roguecc.edu. Send CD entries to The Galleries, Rogue Community College, 3345 Redwood Hwy, Grants Pass, OR 97527.

For more information please call the RCC gallery office at 541-956-7241, or visit www.roguecc.edu/galleries/callforentries.asp.

###

Twitter cue: Entries sought for RCC galleries shows featuring pastels and exploring freedom

N13-64