RCC gallery hosts new art exhibit

GRANTS PASS — A new exhibit is going on display at the Rogue Community College FireHouse Gallery.

The Landscape of Geography, by New York artist Allyn Stewart, will be on display Sept. 5-27. The show features mixed media digital collages that describe the language of landscape, the visual relationship between landscape, maps and geography, and the idea of becoming lost.

Stewart has an M.F.A. in Art Media Studies from Syracuse University, NY, an M.A. in Museum Editing and Archival Studies from Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, PA and a B.F.A. in Art History/Painting from Syracuse University. She teaches a range of courses within the division of art and design at Cazenovia College, NY.

Windows of Hope, UCAN’s annual fundraiser for local food banks, will display art to be auctioned in the Community Exhibits Room. Donating artists include Tommi Drake, Janet Higgins, Vickie Magallon, Marcee Siemens, Allison Sitov, Shirley Usher, and E’ Webb.

A First Friday Art Night reception is scheduled from 5 to 8 p.m. Sept. 6.

FireHouse Gallery is located at the corner of H and Fourth streets in Historic City Hall, Grants Pass. Hours are 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday. For information call 541-956-7241.
