Required Contractor Education Pre-Licensing Training Offered at Rogue Community College in September

The Rogue Community College Small Business Development Center is offering the required Contractor Education Pre-Licensing Training in White City beginning September 9. The class will be held in five evenings beginning Tuesday, September 9, completing Wednesday, September 27. The $350 tuition includes class and CCB text only. A spouse or partner may attend at no charge with a paying student; however, registration is required. The instructors are Steve Siegel, Silver Creek Landscape, Matthew Galli, attorney, and Paul Martin, State of Oregon.

The mandated test requires a passing grade of 70 percent and is provided by an approved testing site for an additional fee.

Requirements for registration include a copy of any of the following government-issued photo IDs: driver's license, other DMV identification, alien registration card, military identification, or passport. No other identification will be accepted. Information will be electronically transferred to the Oregon Construction Contractors Board and will again be requested at the time the mandated test is taken.

Detailed information is available by contacting the SBDC at 541-956-7494. Pre-registration is required by noon two working days before the class to avoid cancellation. Enrollment is limited. Register on-line, at any RCC registration site, or call the SBDC at 541-956-7494 for telephone pre-registration or further information.

For additional SBDC classes, visit our website at www.roguecc.edu/sbdc

MicroE Scholarships Available: A 90 percent tuition discount is available for people who already own, or want to start a Micro Enterprise business (5 or fewer people including the owner). Eligibility is for Josephine County residents who are within the low-to-moderate income limits (based on family size and 2012 income). Contact the RCC Small Business Development Center at 541-956-7494 or sbdc@roguecc.edu to see if you qualify for grant funds and to register. Funding is available for a limited time and can be applied to all SBDC classes.
