Employee Management Issues For Business Owners

New Course Offered By Rogue Community College Small Business Development Center

The Rogue Community College Small Business Development Center (SBDC) has expended their course offerings to include employee management issues for business owners in both Grants Pass and Medford. The instructor for these courses is Fred Holloway, Holloway Human Resource Consulting.

Coaching, Feedback and Delegation will be held in Medford from 6 to 9 p.m., Wednesday, October 1, in Room 309 of the Higher Education Center, 101 S. Bartlett. Attendees will learn coaching skills and tools that can be applied immediately; and how to effectively delegate responsibilities and tasks and the elements of providing successful feedback. The cost of this class is $54 per person.

Managing People: Maximizing Your Greatest Asset will be held in Grants Pass from 6 to 9 p.m., Wednesday, October 15, at the Small Business Development Center, 214 SW 4th Street in downtown Grants Pass. Much of an organization's value resides in its employees. To become a better company, employers need to help their employees become their most valuable assets. This course will address techniques for identifying and developing great employees, review rewards and recognition systems that work, and provide techniques and tools for successfully dealing with the difficult employee. The cost of this class is $54 per person.

Human Resource Essentials and Managing Workplace conflict will be held in November.

MicroE Scholarships Available: A 90% tuition discount is available for people who already own, or want to start a Micro Enterprise business (5 or less people including the owner). Eligibility is for Josephine County residents who are within the low-to-moderate income limits (based on family size and 2012 income). Contact RCC’s Small Business Development Center to see if you qualify for grant funds and to register at (541) 956-7494 or email sbdc@roguecc.edu. Funding is available for a limited time and can be applied to all SBDC classes.

Pre-registration is required by noon two working days before the class to avoid cancellation. Enrollment is limited. Register on-line, at any RCC registration site, or call the SBDC at 956-7494 for telephone pre-registration or further information.
