Is Your Career in Human Services?
Program Information Sessions Offered

GRANTS PASS/MEDFORD—Interested in rewarding work helping others get through difficult times? A degree in human services from Rogue Community College might be for you. An RCC degree prepares students for entry-level employment in such areas as child and family services, mental health, social services, addictions counseling, aging and rehabilitation.

If you are interested in applying for admission to the Human Services program at RCC, you are encouraged to attend informational sessions to learn about the program and careers that might be available to you. All prospective students are welcome and there is no cost.

The next Human Services sessions are at the following times and locations:

November 5
4-6 p.m.
Redwood Campus, Grants Pass, Room G-2

December 4
5-7 p.m.
Riverside Campus, Medford
Higher Education Center

The sessions are a mandatory part of the application process. All prospective students who attended an information session in the past are required to attend again during the school year in which they intend to apply.

For information, contact Francine Gentile by phone at 541-956-7072, or by email at fgentile@roguecc.edu

About the Human Services Program
RCC's Human Services program offers classroom instruction and practical training, including internships that will develop your skills in a real-life setting. You'll learn about human behavior and social problems and how individuals interface with various systems to address these issues.
