Community auditions for RCC’s “Tribute to the Beatles”

GRANTS PASS — A variety of acts are needed for Rogue Community College’s “Tribute to the Beatles” variety show on Sunday August 24th.

Auditions for any number of acts will be held on Saturday, August 2 from 2 to 4 p.m. on the Redwood Campus in Grants Pass, 3345 Redwood Highway in the Rogue Auditorium. The college is looking for singers, instrumentalists, dancers, comedians and actors.

The only criteria for the acts are that they must be centered on the Beatles theme and music. The show will be a celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Beatles’ first appearance in the United States on the Ed Sullivan program in 1964.

If you are a singer and would like to join the RCC choir as it works on Beatles medleys for this event, rehearsals begin immediately on Mondays beginning July 7 from 5:45 to 8:35 p.m. in Building T, Room 2. The choir also needs back-up players for the band.

If you are not able to audition on August 2, 2 to 4 p.m., another time may be scheduled upon request.

More information is available from RCC Choir Director, Deborah Pratt, 541-608-5203 or dpratt@roguecc.edu.
