Attend Career Transformations and Maybe Change Your Life

MEDFORD, Ore.—Are you searching for more meaning in your career, or are you out of the job market and looking for a new one? Maybe you are thinking of starting your own business. Career Transformations at the RCC/SOU Higher Education Center, an all-day series of workshops for mid-career people, could provide you with the answers you need.

Find a vision for your career path in one of the morning sessions, then find ways to take action in the afternoon. You will learn where economic growth is predicted in the Rogue Valley, and be inspired by real life stories of people who have successfully made a career change.

Held Saturday, March 7, 2015 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. in the RCC/SOU Higher Education Center at 101 South Bartlett Street in Medford, Oregon, Career Transformations workshops will include:

Stories to inspire:

- Panel Discussion— Making It Real: True Stories of Career Life Transformations
- Keynote: Labor Market Trends

Finding Your Vision...

- Create Your Own Purpose Statement
- Get Your Mojo Back: New Directions in Your Current Career
- Evaluate Your Career Options

Taking Action...

- Soloprenuer – How to Start Your Own Business
- Marketing Yourself
- Online Resources for Your Next Career

Resources will be available for you to consult about employment opportunities, education and training, job search resources, and more with representatives of local organizations.

Sponsored by Rogue Community College, Southern Oregon University, WorkSource Oregon, The Job Council, Jackson County Library Services, Southern Oregon Media Group, and AARP.

Advance Registration is encouraged. Cost is $10. For information or to register, visit www.sou.edu/takeaclass or call 541-552-8150.
