Human Library Open to Public

GRANTS PASS/MEDFORD, Ore.—The Rogue Community College (RCC) Diversity Programming Board is hosting two events featuring live books for its Human Library Project on both campuses on May 12 and May 14.

The Human Library is a twist on a traditional library where the titles available for check-out are actually community volunteers willing to share their personal life experiences with students, staff, and the general public.

Cardholders can borrow a ‘human book’ for a 30-minute conversation to ask questions, broaden perspectives, and find common ground.

This event creates a safe space for both the live “book” and the live reader to have honest, open dialogues on a variety of experiences, adventures, careers, life stories, worldviews, how-to projects and more.

The event is scheduled from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on May 12 at the Redwood Campus Library in Grants Pass, 3345 Redwood Highway and 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., May 14 at the Riverside Campus, second floor of the Medford Library, 205 S. Central Ave. Members of the general public are welcome to come and check-out the “books.”
