

May 28, 2015

RCC GED Graduation to Be Held in Medford

MEDFORD, Ore.—The Rogue Community College (RCC) Adult Basic Skills Department is honoring GED® students at a graduation on June 11.

General Educational Development (GED) Certificates will be awarded to a small group of well-deserving students in a ceremony on Thursday, June 11, 2015, at 6:00 p.m., in the large community room at the Jackson County Library, 205 S. Central Ave., Medford, next to the RCC Riverside Campus.

Members of the public, especially those interested in also pursuing a GED certificate in the future, are welcome to attend the event and speak to graduates and staff about their experience. Seating is limited, so please RSVP.

A reception will be held following the ceremony in the Higher Education Center at 101 S. Bartlett Ave., in Medford in Room 129B.

For more information about the ceremony, or to inquire about the GED program at any RCC campus in Grants Pass, White City, Medford, or the Illinois Valley Learning Center, go to the RCC Adult Basic Skills Website at: <http://go.rogucecc.edu/department/abeged>.

The official RCC commencement will be at the Marjorie Holzgang Bowl in Grants Pass.

The college's official commencement ceremony is scheduled Saturday, June 13, in the Marjorie Holzgang Concert Bowl on the RCC Redwood Campus at 3345 Redwood Highway, Grants Pass.

For more information on GED or to RSVP for GED graduation, contact Peggy Guthmiller at pguthmiller@rogucecc.edu or 541-245-7562.

For more information about the June 13 commencement, contact Claudia Sullivan at csullivan@rogucecc.edu or 541-956-7176.

###

N15-044