Ospreys Women Show Grit in Fall to Lane

GRANTS PASS/MEDFORD, Ore.--The RCC Ospreys Women's Soccer lost to Lane Community College 0-11 on Wednesday, September 23 at the Titan's home field at Lane.

The Ospreys are now 0-4 in NWAC competition.

Ospreys coach Rusty Veth moved some players into different positions in the hope of finding a spark. "They continue to show grit with every game," he said. "And they use every game as an opportunity for growth."

Ospreys Keeper Cassondra Wessels had 11 saves, and there were no yellow or red cards in the match.

The Ospreys next match will take place this Saturday, September 26, against Chemeketa community college at 12 p.m. in Salem, Ore.
