RCC Board of Education Seeks Input on Profile of Next President Community Forums Planned Oct. 6, 7, and 8

GRANTS PASS/MEDFORD, Ore.--With the upcoming retirement of President Dr. Peter Angstadt (see announcement at RCC-N15-033) in the summer of 2016, the Rogue Community College (RCC) Board of Education (Board) has initiated an inclusive nationwide search process for the sixth President of the College.

The Board is very interested in hearing from all RCC District stakeholders, and is encouraging all community members, students, faculty, and staff to participate in the profile development of the next college president. As such, an executive search consultant retained by the RCC Board will be holding open forums on Oct. 6, 7, and 8. Each day there will be a forum for RCC staff and employees at 9 a.m. and a second forum open to the public at 10:30 a.m.
