RCC Small Business Development Center to Host Free Tax, Budget, and Legislative Updates for Oregon Small Business

GRANTS PASS, Ore.--During this year's legislative session, Oregon will consider several tax and budget initiatives that will directly impact small business. To prepare yourself, the Rogue Community College (RCC) Small Business Development Center (SBDC) is hosting a free session, Tax, Budget and Legislative Updates for Oregon Small Business. This important information session, presented by Small Business Majority, will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wed., Oct. 14 in Room CH-7 on the RCC Redwood Campus in Grants Pass.

The presenter is Jarvez D. Hall, MBA, of Small Business Majority, a national small business advocacy organization, funded and run by small business owners to focus on solving the largest problems facing America's 28 million small businesses.

Small Business Majority actively engages small business owners to drive smart public policy and get entrepreneurs the resources they need to thrive. In addition, Small Business Majority conducts extensive opinion and economic research, and works with its rapidly growing network of over 40,000 small business owners across the country to ensure their voices are an integral part of the public policy debate.

Pre-registration is required by noon two working days before the class to avoid cancellation. Enrollment is limited. Register on-line at www.bizcenter.org. (Select: register for training/training/Grants Pass/Managing a Business/Tax, Budget and Legislative Updates for Oregon Small Business.)
