RCC Reopens for Classes , Thanks Law Enforcement, Staff, and Students

GRANTS PASS, Ore.-- Rogue Community College reopened for classes today, Oct. 6. Everyone at RCC is thankful for the quick and thorough response by law enforcement and other emergency agencies in this tense situation.

RCC also thanks the students and staff for their calm and courage during the evacuation of the campuses. Thousands of students and staff quickly and--most importantly--safely left our various sites.

Events like this may cause much emotional strain. The RCC counseling staff offers confidential, short-term counseling to students and staff at no charge. They are available Mon-Fri, 8-5, for walk-in or call-in services. If you prefer an appt., call Counseling at RVC 541-245-7552 or RWC 541-956-7192. You will gain strategies to manage anxious thoughts, sadness, anger or stress. We listen with deep respect, and you will gain new tools and perspectives.
