Ospreys Men's Soccer Gets on Board, Falls to Clark

GRANTS PASS/MEDFORD, Ore. --The RCC Ospreys men's soccer team lost to Clark Community College in Northwest Athletic Conference (NWAC) play on Sun., Oct. 4.

The Ospreys men's team scored one point against the Penguins. The goal was made by Allan Ramos-Garcia in the second half. The Ospreys keeper Hector Rocha and Joe Siordia had a combined 8 saves in the match. The final match score was 4-1. The men's team is now 0-6 in the NWAC. "The team battled a good team today. Although we haven't been rewarded in the win column, the pieces are starting to come together. We will continue to work in training so we can hopefully be rewarded next time out," said Coach Greg Millick.
