

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT FUND TYPE

The Capital Improvement Funds account for the receipt and disbursement of resources for buildings and land, buying or maintaining College facilities, and equipment. The principle revenues include transfers from the General Fund, bond levy proceeds, certificates of participation and investment earnings.