Casting continues for “Hot L Baltimore”

MEDFORD — A second round of auditions for “The Hot L Baltimore” is scheduled Dec. 5 by the Rogue Community College’s Theater Arts Department in Medford.

RCC will produce Lanford Wilson’s Obie and Drama Critics award-winning play next spring.

Auditions, which are open to students and community members, are scheduled from noon to 3 p.m. December 5 or by arrangement. Roles for women between the ages of 30 and 70 will be cast. The roles include prostitutes and an eccentric waitress. For scripts and information, call John Cole at 245-7585, or see him in his office at the RCC/SOU Higher Education Center, Room 201-K, 101 S. Bartlett.

Rehearsals will begin in January. All cast members will register for TA141, which will meet from 2 to 5 p.m. Wednesdays starting winter term. (Winter term at RCC begins Jan. 5.) Additional rehearsals will be arranged.
