Learn more about Measures 66 and 67

Oregon Representatives Peter Buckley (D-5) and Dennis Richardson (R-4) will discuss Measures 66 and 67 in Medford on Jan. 11. The event will begin at 6 p.m. in the Presentation Hall (Room 132) of the RCC/SOU Higher Education Center, 101 S. Bartlett St.

Measure 66 would raise taxes on incomes at and above $250,000 for households, $125,000 for individual filers. The measure would generate an estimated $472 million to provide funds currently budgeted for education, health care, public safety and other services.

Measure 67 would raise the $10 corporate minimum tax to $150 for most businesses and establish a minimum tax of approximately 0.1 percent of total Oregon revenues for some corporations with more than $500,000 in revenues. The measure would raise an estimated $255 million to provide funds currently budgeted for education, health care, public safety and other services.

Rogue Community College Associated Student Government at the RCC Riverside Campus is hosting the event. For more information call Matt Moreali, ASGRCC advisor, 245-7727 or (530) 409-2532.

###

N10-04