SBDC instructor will present at government contract training

MEDFORD — Steve Spilker, a business counselor with the Rogue Community College Small Business Development Center, will speak at a free Government Contract Assistance Program (GCAP) training Aug. 11.

Spilker, who is also a procurement counselor for GCAP, will join Program Manager Dee Edwards in leading the training, which helps small business owners take the initial steps to become government contractors or advance their current potential for competing in the government contracting market.

Topics will include:
• The basics of government contracting
• Where and how to register
• Where and how to find out what the government buys
• How to contract with the BLM and Forest Service in the local area

The training is scheduled from 9 a.m. to noon at the Bureau of Land Management, Interagency Office, 3040 Biddle Rd. For more information call 541-736-1088 or 800-497-7551, or contact Edwards at dedwards@gcap.org.
