RCC’s BDC launches spring term non-profit management series with class covering communicating clearly

The Business Development Center of Rogue Community College begins its spring term series of non-profit management courses April 8 with “Communicating Effectively in Challenging Times.”

Nonprofits sometimes experience challenges due to the actions of a client, staff member, or a rumor. Learn how to communicate effectively, stay on point, get your message heard and move forward.

The class runs from 9 a.m. to noon at RCC’s Riverside Campus, A Building, Room 12, 202 S. Riverside Ave. Medford. Instructor is Kelly Wessels; tuition costs $59.

Additional nonprofit management courses spring term include:

Financial Savvy to Build Sustainability: 9 a.m. to noon, May 6. Tuition: $59. Instructor: Debbie Cantiello. Location: Riverside Campus, Medford.

Save $30 by enrolling in all four non-profit management courses. Pre-registration is required by noon two working days before the class to avoid cancellation. Enrollment is limited. To register or for further information call at 956-7494.
