

AP 7365 Discipline and Dismissal – Non-Academic Employees

References:

None

According to Oregon Community College Association (OCCA), Administrative Procedure 7365 Discipline and Dismissal – Non-Academic Employees, is a recommended as good practice procedure for an entity that employs permanent, non-academic positions.

Rogue Community College operates with a comprehensive collective bargaining agreement and handbook that exceed the scope of this procedural verbiage.

Permanent, non-academic employees of Rogue Community College may find more information on the collective bargaining agreement, employee discipline manual and employee handbook (as applicable) by following these links:

For the privacy of our employees, this information is not publicly available.

Classified Collective Bargaining Agreement

Classified Employee Discipline Manual

Management/Administrative/Confidential Handbook

Rescinds Policy Number: None

Approved: March 3, 2020