Residency for tuition purposes is determined at the time of admission to Rogue Community based on the information the applicant provides. International students do not become residents, regardless of the length of their residency within the state. When determining in-state tuition and fees, Rogue Community College defines a resident as someone whose permanent residence has been in Oregon for no less than 90 continuous days immediately preceding the first day of classes for the quarter in which residency is being established. Permanent residence is defined as the home a person intends to return to after any absence, and in which one's dependents reside for an unlimited period of time.

Please refer to RCC's official Residency Administrative Procedure 5015 for more information.

Changes to residency status will be applied to the current term, or future terms, ONLY.
