2009/10 Verification Instructions

Your application has been chosen for "verification." This means that RCC must collect documents supporting the information you reported on your 2009-2010 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

The Verification Worksheet is used to collect current 2008 federal tax filing status, 2008 untaxed income and benefits, household size, and number in college information. Taxable income and other financial information is obtained from copies of signed 2008 federal tax forms, W-2(s) and other documents, as requested.

Necessary changes to your application are electronically submitted to the federal processors by RCC's Financial Aid Office staff. You will receive a revised Student Aid Report (SAR).

The law (financial aid program rules, 34 CFR, Part 668) states that RCC's Financial Aid Office has the right to require documentation necessary to perform this verification before awarding federal aid.

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO:

1. Submit a completed, signed and dated Verification Worksheet. DO NOT LEAVE ANY SECTION BLANK.
2. Submit signed copies of W-2s and filed 2008 federal tax forms (1040, 1040A, 1040EZ), consistent with your dependency status as shown at the top of your Verification Worksheet*:

Dependent Student:

- Yours
- Your parent(s) – If, at the time the 2009/10 FAFSA was signed, the parent who signed it was:
Married – Submit father's/stepfather's and mother's/stepmother's joint return or both of their separate returns. W-2's may also be required.
Separated, Divorced, or Widowed – Submit that parent's return. (Note: If a joint return was filed, a copy of that parent's joint return and his/her W-2s.)

Independent Student:

- Yours - If separated/divorced/widowed when the 2009/10 FAFSA was signed and you filed a joint return, submit a copy of the joint return and copies of your W-2(s).
- Spouse - If married when the 2009/10 FAFSA was signed, submit your joint return or both separate returns. W-2's may also be required.

Note to applicant, spouse, or parent(s) who has not yet filed federal tax forms but is required to do so: In order for RCC to continue processing your financial aid application, it will be necessary for you to submit a signed copy of your filed return(s). W-2's may also be required.

Note to applicant, spouse, or parent(s) who did not keep a copy of federal tax forms, the following are your options for obtaining a copy:

- a) Request a copy of the tax form from your tax preparer.
- b) Get a free tax transcript by calling the IRS at 1(800) 829-1040 or by visiting www.irs.gov.
- c) Submit IRS Form 4506, available at www.irs.gov.
- d) Call 1(800)TAX-FORM.

- Money received, or paid on your behalf (e.g., bills), not reported elsewhere on this form

Household Size consistent with your dependency status shown at the top of your Verification Worksheet:

Dependent Student: Include in your parent's(s') household:

- yourself and your parents, even if you don't live with your parents,
- your parents' other children if a) your parents will provide more than half of their support from 7/1/09 through 6/30/10, or b) the children could answer "no" to every question in Step Three of the FAFSA, and
- other people if they now live with your parents, your parents provide more than half of their support and your parents will continue to provide more than half of their support from 7/1/09 through 6/30/10.
- Parent's Household: If your parents are living and married to each other, include both. If your parent is widowed or single, include that parent. If your widowed parent is remarried as of today, include that parent and your stepparent. If your parents are divorced or separated, include the parent you lived with more during the past 12 months. If you did not live with one parent more than the other, include the parent who provided more financial support during the past 12 months or during the most recent year that you actually received support from a parent. If this parent was remarried as of the date you signed the FAFSA, include that parent and your stepparent. (Grandparents, legal guardians, aunts and uncles are not considered parents unless they have legally adopted you).

Independent Student: Include in your (and your spouse's) household:

- yourself (and your spouse, if you have one)
- your children, if you will provide more than half of their support from 7/1/09 through 6/30/10, and
- other people if they now live with you and you provide more than half of their support and you will continue to provide more than half of their support from 7/1/09 through 6/30/10.

Number in College

Of those in your household size, how many will be attending college at least half-time in a program of study that leads to a college degree or certificate? Always count yourself. Do not include your parents.
