Enjoy Free Music and Theater Events at RCC in March

GRANTS PASS, Ore.—Rogue Community College students will be presenting a variety of entertainment opportunities for the community in March.

All programs will be presented on the Redwood Campus, 3345 Redwood Highway, Grants Pass, in the Rogue Auditorium and are scheduled as follows:

March 12 and 17: Probing Paradox. The theater class will be presenting monologues and scenes from material they have written. Both performances are scheduled from 3 to 4:15 p.m.

March 15: Musical Melodies of March. The RCC Concert Band and Redwood Choir will present selections including “the Eternal Optimist,” “Overture to a New Horizon,” “Daedalus’ Labyrinth,” “But for the Love of Ireland,” “Annie Laurie,” and “The Little Beggarman.” The concert is set for 3 to 4:15 p.m.

March 18: Lunchtime Laughs. Improv students will present a showcase of games and scenes that will involve the audience. This show is scheduled at 12:15 – 1:30 p.m.

Admission is free for all of these performances. For more information contact Wayd Drake, 541-218-0981, Jon Bennett, 541-660-9450, or Tricia Drevets, 541-660-5056.
