“What affects your health?”
Youth Photographers Featured in Gallery Reception

MEDFORD, Ore.—Rogue Community College Department of Allied Health Occupations and Kids Unlimited invite the community to a gallery reception on following the opening day of the 2015 Statewide Community Health Worker Conference in Medford on June 17.

RCC Community Health Worker Training graduates asked children from around the State of Oregon, "What affects your health?" Children used photography to answer this question. These photos, with a view to health, will be unveiled at this gallery reception.

Please join us as we celebrate how our future leaders' see the health of our communities.

- Wednesday, June 17
- 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.
- Kids Unlimited at 821 North Riverside Ave., Medford.
- Arrive at your leisure.

Conference attendance is not required, but space is limited.

Please let us know you are joining us by visiting Event Brite at www.eventbrite.com and search Medford for “RCC and Kids Unlimited Gallery Reception.”

If you need assistance with registration, or for more information, please contact Maura Groves at 541-245-7828.

Light refreshments will be served.
