A student is considered homeless if lacking fixed, regular and adequate housing. This includes students living in shelters, motels, cars or parks, or who are temporarily living with other people because they have nowhere else to go. Students are also considered homeless if they are fleeing an abusive parent. By putting your initials on each line, you are acknowledging that each definition is a true and accurate statement about your personal situation:

_____ “Unaccompanied” – Not living in the physical custody of your legal parent or guardian.

_____ “Homeless” – Lacking fixed, regular and adequate housing. You may be homeless if you are living in Shelters, parks, motels, cars, or are temporarily living with other people because you have nowhere else to go.

_____ “Youth” – Born after January 1, 1999.

Please report your asset information as it was on the day you filled out your 2022-23 FAFSA.
