Generally, a student can only receive financial aid from one school at a time. When a student enrolls at more than one school during the same term, it may be possible for their HOME school to base financial aid on the combined, aid-eligible credits.

To apply for RCC as your HOME school, review the student responsibilities and submission deadline below. If you can check “yes” to all and it’s before the submission deadline, complete to the second page then submit both pages together. If you cannot answer “yes” to each statement below, we invite you to pursue aid with the other school as the HOME school or accept aid for only your RCC credits.

Student Responsibilities (must check “yes” next to each to be eligible):

- I am admitted to and currently pursuing an aid-eligible certificate or degree at RCC ___ Yes
- I will maintain at least half-time enrollment at RCC (6+ RCC credits) ___ Yes
- I will enroll only in developmental education (under 100 level), Freshman (100 level) or Sophomore (200 level) courses that meet outstanding RCC major requirements while RCC is HOME school ___ Yes
- I will only accept federal/state aid from my HOME school ___ Yes
- I understand, in general, the administrative policies of my HOME school will be used when processing and monitoring my eligibility ___ Yes
- If approved, any excess aid after my RCC bill is paid will be refunded to me via BankMobile and I am responsible for timely payment to my HOST school ___ Yes
- I must successfully complete the term enrollment at my HOST school for consideration of future aid eligibility based on dual enrollment with RCC as my HOME school ___ Yes

Submission Deadline: 5pm the second Monday of the term. Failure to submit by the stated deadline will result in RCC paying aid based only on RCC credits.
