

Special Circumstance Appeal 2026/27

Name _____ RCC ID _____

This appeal form can be used to request a review of your financial aid eligibility if your financial situation has changed in one of the ways listed below. If you are asking for a review because your income has decreased, please complete the Change in Income Appeal form.

Only submit this form if all the following are true:

- You have already completed the 26/27 FAFSA and RCC has it on file
- You have submitted any additional information requested by RCC Financial Aid to process your FAFSA
- Your SAI is greater than 0

Complete all sections of this form and attach required documents. Incomplete appeals will not be reviewed. Submitting this appeal does not guarantee your financial aid will change or increase. Please allow up to four weeks for review and processing. Check your email in case we request additional information or documents.

A. Individual Requesting Appeal: Mark either or both

Parent Special Circumstance | Student/Spouse Special Circumstance

B. Appeal Categories & Required Documentation: Mark the option(s) that apply:

Marriage, Death, Divorce, or Separation: After filing the FAFSA, you or your parent(s) had a change in marital status that reduced total income. Provide documents such as a marriage certificate, death certificate, divorce or separation papers, and the most recent Tax Return Transcripts.

Unusual Expenses: You, your spouse, or your parent(s) had unusual and unavoidable expenses that have created a financial hardship, such as medical expenses you paid out of pocket. Provide documents that show these expenses.

Other major changes to household size or assets: provide documents that show the changes.

C. All appeals must include a signed and dated statement explaining the special circumstances in detail.

Student Certification: The information I provided is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. It reflects a more accurate picture of my or my family's ability to help pay for my 26/27 college expenses. I understand if I purposely provide false, incomplete, or misleading information I could be fined or face other penalties.
