Fall Weeks 5-10 ✦

Hello TRIO Students!

This month, we would like to take a moment to welcome our new Riverside TRIO-SSS Program Specialist: Christian Smith! Christian is a former RCC student and ASG member, who graduated just last year! He is currently studying Business at SOU. We encourage you to welcome Christian to the team!

Christian (and Anna) will be valuable resources to you this month, as November is the launch of the 26/26 scholarship season! There are many new scholarships opening this month, and other 25/26 scholarships are closing. This includes the Soroptimist Scholarship and RCC's TRIO-SSS Scholarship. So if you need any help at all with your scholarship essays, talk to Christian or Anna!

If you prefer working with other students, there are scholarship open labs scheduled throughout the month on both campuses. You can review these times, and make your plan to come in, on page 3. More than half of TRIO students who apply for scholarships are awarded, so don't miss your chance! And if you need any help or have any questions at all, rely on your TRIO team! We've got you!

Best,
Danielle Garcia &
Nadine Roper

Nursing Program Changes

Selection Points:

Students will be required to work significantly more hours in the healthcare field to earn selection points. Students lacking work experience are significantly less likely to get into the Nursing program.

Application:

This year, there will be separate, simpler applications to each Nursing program and cohort (PN, Fall RN Cohort, and Spring RN Cohort). More information in November.

Anime Club is looking for Officers!

Attention all TRIO students! Ryan Preston-Snider at the Redwood Campus is trying to restart anime club. He is currently looking for officers to help run it.

Once started, the club would be doing things like spicy ramen contests or watching anime movies. Contests will have prizes for anyone participating and movie days will have snacks, soda, and more!

Anyone interested should meet Ryan at the TRIO-SSS Lounge in L-building after 12:50pm Monday or Wednesday, or contact him at ryan.prestonsnider.5367@student.roguecc.edu. Meetings are planned to be on Fridays at the Redwood Campus starting at 3pm.
