Dear Tiffany,

The Board has completed its review of the curriculum submitted by your school. The Rogue Community College program, based on the Model Curriculum [eff. date 10/1/2012], is compliant with the Oregon Administrative Rules. As such, your school will be placed on the list as one that fulfills the Board's educational requirements.

The Board will continue to review a school's requirements, as it deems necessary. Should the Board determine that requirements have not been met, the Board may revoke certification. [OAR 334-010-0046(5)]

Thank you for your patience and cooperation in this process.

Sincerely,

Kate Coffey
Executive Director

Dear Ms. Clarkin,

On behalf of the National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork (NCBTMB), thank you for submitting the Assigned School Code Application with supporting documentation. NCBTMB has concluded its review of your request and has confirmed Rogue Community College has met the requirements to become an NCBTMB Assigned School since 2/9/1995, and is considered to be a school in good standing until the following date of 2/9/2018.

To ensure that your Assigned School Code stays active, you will need to submit the proper renewal information (i.e. state licensure, accreditation, exemption clause) within 30 days of the expiration date.

Your NCBTMB Assigned School Code is 022370. Please provide all graduates this identification number for inclusion on their application when applying for a National Certification Exam (NCETM or NCETMB).

Please note that NCBTMB does not approve any school's program of study or curriculum training and that a school code assignment does not constitute accreditation, endorsement or approval.

As an NCBTMB Assigned School it is the responsibility of the assigned school to keep all information current. Changes to information and documentation provided with your School Status Code Request Form, should be reported with proper documentation within 30 days of the implemented modifications. This includes, but is not limited to, changes to curriculum, school ownership, contact information, and licensing status. NCBTMB reserves the right to temporarily suspend the Assigned School Code and render the school's graduates ineligible for national certification should NCBTMB determine that a school has not met its obligation to inform NCBTMB of any changes. NCBTMB retains the right to revoke or suspend the Assigned School Code as it deems necessary in order to protect its certification program.

Changes should be mailed to the following address:

National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork
c/o School Outreach
1901 S. Meyers Road, Ste 240
Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181

If you have any questions or concerns regarding your NCBTMB Assigned School Code status please contact the School Outreach Team at 1-800-296-0664 or schooloutreach@nbtmb.org
