

Please join us in recognizing the winner for the 2022

AAWCC-RCC Flame of Excellence Award

Angel Woods

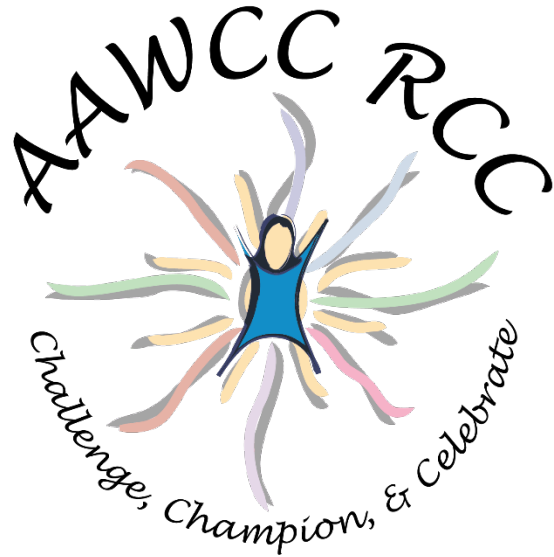

"She truly has a heart for people and celebrates their successes."

"She is kind and builds others up by her words and actions."

"She is always willing to lend a hand to make our group successful. She does this with grace, forgiveness, and a ready smile."

Please join us in recognizing the winner for 2023

AAWCC-RCC Flame of Excellence Award

Rene McKenzie

"I appreciate how genuine and transparent Rene is as a person as well as a mentor and fellow employee."

"I've always said that I want to be Rene when I grow up."

"She challenges students and employees to have a strong voice and pursue positive change while maintaining high ethical standards and expectations."

