RCC International Student Financial Statement and Affidavit of Support

Please list and document the funds available to you. Report the funds in terms of U.S. dollars. Total must be at least $36,521 to cover tuition, books, and living expenses for one year of study as required by SEVIS.

Rogue Community College requires certification of adequate financial support from applicants with nonimmigrant visas. This financial statement, including bank statements, must be on file with the International office before an applicant will be considered for admission to the college. They must demonstrate the ability to cover the cost of at least one–academic-year's attendance (does not include Summer session). A student should be prepared to pay tuition and fees when registering for classes each quarter.

Estimated costs for a single student living independently are listed below. These estimates are subject to change without notice, and the student should anticipate possible adjustments in expenses.

Costs and Fees	Academic Year (3 Terms)	Summer Term
Tuition (2024-25) $407 per credit hour Minimum of 12 credits of study each quarter is required (summer excluded)	$14,652	$4,884 (if 12 credits)
Universal Fee	$864	$288
Health Insurance*	$500	$125
Books and supplies	$1,626	$542
Local transportation (does not include purchasing a vehicle)	$1,947	$649
Housing, food, clothing, and personal expenses	$16,932	$5,644
TOTALS – (APPROXIMATE)	$36,521	$12,132

Bank statements must be signed/stamped by a bank official certifying that the amount is accurate and belongs to the person named on the account.

*Health Insurance is not required, but is strongly recommended for international students.
