5	Introduction of Guests and Public Comment Guests: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sam Engle-Allcare topic: Warming Shelter for Josephine County 3 categories for warming center. Pop up inclement warming/cooling centers, regular year-round shelter opened in Josephine County Leadership is really taking off in getting this off the ground to get this warming center established. A place where RCC students can be helpful is to put out the word on social media or word of mouth for when the pop-up shelter will be open. There are no set dates when opening as it is weather dependent. How do we keep students engaged to be active in volunteering for the warming shelter? Which social media are most students active on so they can receive the information for volunteering for the warming shelter as to when they will be needed? Email, Facebook, RCC App, Instagram, RCC marketing to send communication emails to students, student sign up for those interested in volunteering with contact information, Volunteers 16 and older with staff supervision • Jodi Simons- • Studio B (Graphic Design) 	DeVlaeminck

6	Director's Report: Good morning and welcome to winter term, 2022. I hope your well-deserved break had restful times and plenty of joy. There are many irons in the fire and much to do this term. I appreciate and value each of you for your contribution to the team, your willingness to work hard and your creative and innovative ideas for community college a better experience for students. I am looking forward to our winter training and working with all of you. Happy New Year.	McKenzie
7	Advisor's Report: I hope the transition back into the school flow goes smoothly. We have a lot of great projects and events this term. When things feel hard, remember it's because Leadership isn't supposed to be easy. Leadership takes discipline, a willingness to grow and be challenged, and challenge others. We are a team. I am ready to dig deep into this important work of engaging students and improving the college and our community with you. I am proud to be your advisor and to be a part of your educational journey.	Daugherty
